EXTERMINATOR AGAIN WINS

DEFEATS GREY LAG IN 34TH RUNNING OF FAMOUS BROOKLYN

Winner Packs 135 Pounds In Hardest Test of Long Career.

NEW YORK, June 16 .- Exterminator, the 7-year-old wonder horse S. Kilmer, met the hardest test of his long career today by winning the classic Brooklyn Handicap at Aqueduct under the gruelling load of 135 pounds. He received a tremendous ovation at the

His time over the mile and an eighth distance was 1:50.

Grey Lag, owned by the Rancocas Stable, was second, and S. L. Jenkins' Polly Ann third.

It was the thirty-fourth running of the Brooklyn and marked the opening of the Aqueduct race season. It has long been regarded as the fairest test of American horse-

Grey Lag, winner of the event last year, was the favorite, 7 to 10, while Exterminator paid 7 to 5.

Polly Ann was the outsider, being rated at 5 to 1.

Johnson, riding the Kilmer entry, held back until the last quarter, and then moved up fast. He challenged Fator on Grey Lag and outgamed him in the drive to the wire, winning by a new Polly Ann winning by a nose. Polly Ann showed a remarkable burst of speed for the first six furlongs, and then quit, barely nosing out Captain

The race was the forty-third victory for Exterminator in eighty-one starts since he was a 2-year-His winnings were brought up
